THE DETAILS

- ⇒ This program is geared towards athletes born between 2004 to 2009. Special consideration may be given to other ages if certain criteria is met.
- ⇒ Athletes will receive a PCCC “2 Seasons Sports Camp” logo’ d golf hat and on-ice jersey to be worn all week
- ⇒ Athletes will receive 2 hours of golf lessons Monday-Friday. We will focus on proper golf etiquette and fundamentals; grip, stance, posture and movement. Athletes will learn and practice short game skills (putting, chipping, and bunker shots), spend time on the range developing or improving correct swing technique and consistent ball striking. The focus is to have FUN while improving golf skills in a safe environment.
- ⇒ During dryland conditioning kids will play games and learn how off-ice conditioning can be FUN.
- ⇒ Chris Goulet and his hockey staff made up of OHL, D1 NCAA and other Professional Hockey Players have designed a 2.5 hour on ice program that will develop the kid’s hockey skills. During the week they will cover power skating, edge work, stick handling, and shooting. They will use their professional coaching skills to bring your child’s game to the next level. A goalie coach (TBD) will work with the goalies to give them the training they need to make big saves.
- ⇒ Cost: $475 (HST included)
